

“Expect the Unexpected- Managing Incidents and Improving Quality in Screening Programmes”

National Screening Unit

Objectives:

- To describe the sentinel event in the Universal Newborn Hearing Screening and Early Intervention Programme including process and findings
- To draw out generic lessons for the management of sentinel events in screening programmes including communication issues
- What are the lessons for screening programmes with regards to Continuous Quality Improvement